PUGET SOUND

[From Olympia Papers]

There are several cases of small pox at Port Townsend

The Chehalis river is lower than was ever before known to white settlers

A party of hunters killed eight deer on Bainbridge Island on the 26th ult

The gold miners on the beach at Gray's Harbor are still at work making satisfactory wages

Captain Thompson of the bark Glimpse died of small pox at Port Discovery on the 4th inst

The fog bell at Dungeness has been out of order for lately but it is now repaired and doing service again

The Nisqually saw mill has again changed hands. Messrs Keach & Thayer are now running it

The Washington Mill Company's mill at Seabeck has averaged 85 000 feet of lumber per day for the past year

The potato crop in this vicinity is short yet these highly esteemed esculents are selling at only five bits a bushel in this market

There is over eighty logging camps on Puget Sound employing over one thousand men and seven steamboats constantly, besides an occasional craft by others in towing logs to the mills. Some of these rafts have to be towed sixty miles as is the case with three camps on Mudd Bay which log for the Port Madison mills while others are rafted to the mill without towage

A telegram was received from San Francisco one day last week, announcing that S. B. Abbott dropped dead in that city, on the day the dispatch was dated. By many here it was thought that the gentleman named was a former resident of this place, but we are informed that a later dispatch was received from the veritable S. B. saying that he had not dropped down and was not dead yet and farther that he had no immediate intention of "shuffling off this mortal coil"—if he could help it

Political Brevities

The Grant Tanners of Chicago number 7 485

Vermont promises 7 000 further increase for Grant and Colfax in November

The Philadelphia Press says that even bets on Connecticut and California for Grant are offered and refused

The question in North Carolina is "is an impenitent rebel Democrat as good as a negro?" At last accounts the negro was a long way ahead

The London Spectator facetiously characterizes Governor Seymour's position during the war as "a shifting between armed neutrality, sullen support and insidious opposition"

The Boston Pilot the influential organ of Irish Catholicism in New England nails to the counter as base and untrue, the Democratic slander that Schuyler Colfax was formerly a Know Nothing

The Richmond Examiner predicts that if General Grant is elected the Republican Congress will "organize hell" in the South. We trust so. Organized hell is better than the hell they have got there now

The Boys in Blue are thoroughly aroused in Jersey and are making things look rather blue for Democracy. Never in the history of the State of New Jersey have the opponents of Democracy been so active and so thoroughly roused

Our Republican exchanges come to us full of enthusiasm and roosters. Democratic exchanges are full of abstruse calculations, followed by the solemn announcement that the "Democrats have reason to rejoice over the results." Why don't they rejoice then?

North Carolina is fairly given up by the Democrats since the declaration of Nathaniel Bowden for Grant. The Old North State Democrat concedes it as certain that the Republicans will carry every Congressional district, and that the State will give Grant and Colfax from 30 000 to 40,000 majority

The New York Herald has an advertisement which says "For Sale—A five hundred dollar bet that Seymour will be the next President." For the next twenty days the Herald will probably be full of advertisements of a similar kind. The owners of all such bets will even be willing to sell them for Confederate money

If General Grant says but little he has a remarkable faculty of saying that little well. When he was in Chicago lately he was asked by a friend whether Johnson was for him or for Seymour. Grant smiled and replied "Well I reckon that when he thinks of Seymour, he's for me and when he thinks of me, he's for Seymour"

The Chicago Times report of Pendleton's speech at Centralia, Ill contains the following "As I look around me here, upon this stand, the question comes to me, who of all you men and women will be alive at the end of forty years? [Not a d—d one.] This prompt and unexpected answer convulsed the audience for some minutes."

Corry O'Lanus, the Brooklyn humorist, who airs his pleasantries in the Eagle, gets off the following burlesque on the World's figuring up of the Democratic victories in Vermont and Maine

SQUEDUNK, ME

To C. O'Lanus, Esq. The election in this town has gone just as we expected. The Republicans have carried the town by an increased majority but the heaviest proportionate has been on the Democratic side, as you will see by the figures

	1867	1868
Republican vote	50	60
Democratic vote	1	2
Totals	1	2

The Democratic gain is one hundred per cent while the Republicans gain only twenty per cent. At this rate the redemption of Maine is only a question of time. Yours,

HIGH R. BLODE

INDIANA COLONIZED.—The Kentucky Statesman published at Lexington in that State, forewarned the Republicans of Indiana of the intentions of the Ku-klux Kentucky Democracy in these words

"Kentucky Democrats have been as busy as possible for the last two months in sending carpet baggers from our State to those to vote at the Presidential election. We can spare thousands from our State. It is rumored that the so-called Democratic Club at Louisville have taxed themselves $500 each to raise money to send Kentucky rebels over the river to vote in the Indiana elections. We have been informed there has been a very active business in that way for some time back

THE BEST THING OUT.—The congratulatory address of the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvania over the glorious Democratic gains (over the left) in Maine. Republican majority in 1867 11 100 in 1868 only 20 000! The Maine Democracy have covered themselves with glory and Pennsylvania is expected to do likewise.—[New York Herald

Pennsylvania has done likewise. Last year the State went Democratic by 1 000 majority. Now the Republicans have at the very lowest 10 000 majority and no doubt we shall hear the Democratic organs boasting of immense Democratic gains. Indeed Barr has done so already.

The New Orleans Republican says: "We asked an old freedman if he saw the procession on Saturday evening. He replied: 'I saw a long procession of General Grant's paroled prisoners is that what you mean?'"

Estimates of Wm. B. Astor's wealth range in their estimate from $50 000 000 to $100 000 000. The difference between fifty and a hundred million is so small, you know, that a loose calculation is allowable

Mr Pendleton as a Party Leader

There is a difference between a statesman and a demagogue. The one says what he believes to be true; the other says what he thinks will bring him popularity. The former tells the people what he deems best for the country; the latter tells them whatever he hopes will make him acceptable to them.

Such is the character of the demagogue; he does not usually hold out long. He may be never so eloquent, yet he will contradict himself and display the hollowness and falsity of his professions. Assuming as he does that the people are fools and that he can use them for his own ends by appealing to their prejudices he is very likely to find that they have at least sense enough to see through his plain and undistinguished cunning, from statesmanship.

Mr Pendleton is an aristocrat. His whole career has been marked by the utmost contempt for the opinions and the minds of the people. His political life has been apparently a series of efforts to make the ignorant prejudices which he seems to think control the mass of voters, subserve his personal ambition. But he sometimes overdoes his work. Grant that those to whom he appeals are as ignorant as he supposes them to be, yet even Mr Pendleton, in moments of cool reflection would scarcely insult their intelligence by such arguments as this which he uttered in a speech at Centralia Illinois, a week ago

"This currency pays debts, pays taxes, buys Government lands. Suppose you increase it. Take all that currency out in the West beyond Kansas and Nebraska. There are many good acres of land as every farmer put a plow into for every single dollar and a quarter of this circulation. Suppose you do increase the circulation. Suppose farmers can sell corn at $2 50 and wheat at $5 per bushel. A man who carries a hod here in Centralia can lay by at the end of the year after supporting his family $180 and suppose he could locate two good acres of land for every bushel of corn, or four for every bushel of wheat the laborer can locate a farm of 75 acres of land there. I would wish to know how much the farmer and laborer of this country have lost from this inflation? Not a dollar. It makes you rich

Another instance of the same kind is if possible still worse than this. If there is a lower more debasing prejudice than any other among the most ignorant classes of partially civilized countries it is that of uneducated against educated labor. An antiquated fallacy of political economy long ago exploded, once gave some countenance to the notion that the learned professions add nothing to wealth. But, in communities that read and think this idea, and the prejudices founded on it have been laughed at for a generation. A people low narrow and unintelligent enough to be influenced by them is certainly unfit for self-government. For these are prejudices which strike at the organization of society and, if they become controlling, order and progress become impossible

Yet Mr Pendleton, the leader of the Democratic party, who is called by his followers a statesman and a gentleman stoops to appeal to these prejudices, to repeat this often exploded fallacy, as if it were believed by him to be a fact to address a body of American citizens in language which is fit for no one but the leader of an agrarian revolution, trying to rouse a barbarous peasantry against the rights of property

"There are three sources of wealth. I see around me gentlemen who like myself, belong to the persuasion of law, we are jealous of our profession but gentlemen let me tell you that no lawyer that ever lived in the pursuit of his profession ever added one dollar of wealth to the country, no physician ever did no preacher ever did, and no banker ever did. We are all useful I trust, in our several avocations of life but it is our business to take advantage of the misfortunes and follies of other men and when they have earned the dollar to put it in our pockets

Such speeches as this call not for argument, but for denunciation. Mr Pendleton is not a grossly ignorant man. He has read enough to know the meaning of the words he uses. He has been in Congress. He has associated with men of intelligence. It would be ridiculous to assume that he does not know the truth that he does not know that the professions which maintain civil order preserve health support morality instruct the young, facilitate exchange are as essential to the growth of national wealth as manual labor, that they are more essential indeed for the former have added to the wealth of nations many times as much as could be accumulated without them. To argue this point with Mr Pendleton would be to assume that he is a man of much less than common intelligence, and this he is not

The only other alternative, however is one which concerns his sincerity so deeply that it is not pleasant to contemplate. It is true that his party has been so abused by its leaders that its moral strength is gone. It is true that its only hope for power is to stimulate ignorant prejudices and reckless passions wherever they are found. It is true that in the absence of principles to advocate its orators have scarcely any resource but to attack the existing state of things

But it is also true that the open abandonment of moral strength to appeal to the ignorant passions which menace society itself is disgraceful to any politician. It is true also that the orator who stoops to serve a party in this condition by attacking the ideas which are essential to the stability of the community forfeits all claim to the respect of his countrymen and to the rewards of statesmanship. The people of the United States are not to be led by demagogues.

THE BETTING.—The betting on the Pennsylvania election now stands at 1000 on the Republican ticket to 700 on the Democratic. Many bets are made at these rates.

There is no betting on New Jersey that we hear of the odds standing at 100 on the Democratic to 80 on the Republican

The betting on New York is now about even. We have heard of one even bet made yesterday on 15 000 Democratic majority.

The Philadelphia Press says: "It seems that the bet of $10 000 to $100 000 that Seymour would not carry New York was not closed. Mr Belmont to whom it was proposed, on the strength of a report that he had declared ten to one that Seymour would carry New York having declined the proposal

A prominent Republican on Saturday last bet two leading Democrats in this city $9 000 on Grant's election against $3 000 on Seymour

A wager of $150 to $100 that Seymour would not get a single electoral vote in the North was closed in Philadelphia.—New York Sun

Mary Hurlburt from whose body physicians have extracted during the past ten years at least one thousand needles and pins was found dead in her bed at Susquehanna New York a short time since. She would never give any account of the manner in which they were introduced whether she swallowed them or thrust them directly into her flesh, her friends by watching, however, find that she was found in at different times working them in the surface of almost every part of her body in the habits. All she ever said to them the stories about their removal states that she went to satisfy herself and saw a physician extract them

The Bulletin claims that San Francisco has now a population of 153 000

When a good old Democrat like Reverdy Johnson gets into the presence of a British audience it is refreshing to see what a patriotic Republican he becomes. Thus, he is reported as saying, to a number of Englishmen at a dinner in Sheffield

"The war had this compensation. It ended slavery. None now but freemen tread the soil of America and history will say that blood was well spent in erasing this blot, transmitted from a common ancestry, tarnishing our fame and belying our Declaration of Independence

The Richmond Enquirer and Examiner, being in the vein for working out syllogisms, has gone through the following course of reasoning

1 The Radical party holds negroes to be the equals of white men

2 Equals always intermarry

3 Therefore, if Grant be elected, all the negroes will marry white wives

4 Negroes are fetich worshippers and cannibals

5 Therefore they will eat their wives as soon as they have married them

6 And as the Radicals approve of that sort of thing the Radical party is a cannibal party."

Q. E. D. Comment is superfluous.—Tribune.

GRANT.—The London Spectator differs from its American correspondent, and in an article discussing the prospects of Grant, says

We believe he will be the next President of the United States. The power of the election does not belong to the politicians but to the freeholders and they no more share the politicians' feeling about General Grant than the English electors here the members' feelings about Gladstone. They intend to reward the General who saved the country, and to assert the supremacy of the nation over any part of the nation, and to forbid by one and the same act—the election of the Republican nominee to the Presidency of the Union. If State rights are injured in the process, so much the worse for State rights

Something in the Fence—What is It?

The legal luminary in the House, from Multnomah, has put in the following preamble and resolution

WHEREAS grave questions must arise in the administration of the government of this State which cannot be disposed of during the present session, therefore,

Resolved That it is expedient that when the constitutional term for this session shall expire, that the Assembly should adjourn to the first day of March next

What these "grave questions" are the preamble does not inform us No doubt the people would take it as a favor if the member would be kind enough to specify How does he know that "grave questions must arise," and as the matter is in the future how does he know that they will arise about the first day of March next? Is it the Indians, Chinese or Ku Klux that must arise? or does the member simply indulge in harmless and indefinite bewares, with a view of making the most of his official position and prolonging his rare and pleasing experience on the legislative boards? If this be all ring down the curtain and send our ambiguous prophet home The State has had about enough of the play by this cast of characters

But stay! These "grave questions" which, like the ghost of another Banquo, will not down, but "must arise" before the ides of March, may have railroads in them For the nonce, the mover of the resolution is a "railroadist." Probably he does not fancy getting down from his high, prancing hobby at the end of forty days and taking it afoot for the rest of the way To leave the legislative arena when questions may, nay must arise between such generous patrons as the East and West Side, not to mention the Asylum route, is not to be thought of

Not long since the "unpurchaseable member" from Josephine, in the course of a parliamentary "mill" on railways, remarked that the gentleman from Multnomah unnecessarily assured the House that he had no money in any railroad, but he avoided saying that he did not expect to make any money out of any railroad.

The expression in the resolution, viz "When the constitutional term for this session expires" is an absurd combination of words As it stands in the resolution the expression assumes that the constitutional limit of the session will be reached before the first day of March next This is a mistake By the Constitution the Assembly may continue in session during the period of its existence—until the election in 1870 True, the Constitution limits the per diem of a member to $120 for a session, the equivalent for $3 per day for forty days But the sessions are biennial, and may hold until the next biennial election, unless the Assembly think proper to adjourn sooner Such ignorance of the fundamental law does little credit to our representative. There would be no harm done if a provision were inserted in the Constitution requiring members to read that instrument before they take an oath to support it, or take their seats.

In the meantime we move to refer this preamble and resolution to the "Committee on Conundrums," to ascertain, if possible, what are the "grave questions which must arise" before the March wind blows over the "rail" and also to explain how the Assembly, "when the constitutional term for this session expires" in 1870, can then adjourn to the "first day of March next," with power to send for the necessary "groceries" at the expense of the Asylum route.

Sunbeams from Cucumbers.

The seer of the Herald, who has been proclaiming for three months that the Democrats were going to make a "clean sweep," and that there was no probability that Grant and Colfax would carry more than four States and they [illegible], gives it up that Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana have gone Republican, but finds consolation in saying that the Republican majorities are somewhat reduced since 1864. This fortitude is admirable So it has come to this, that the great reaction which was to overwhelm "Radicalism" and utterly annihilate the Republican party, is confined to amount to nothing more than a partial reduction of hitherto overwhelming Republican majorities,—a reduction which has been brought about by the abuse of Executive patronage which has been wielded against the Republicans, and by the colonization of carpet-baggers in doubtful districts! Out of sixty-four members of Congress which have been elected so far, the Republicans have not lost more than four,—probably one in each of the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, and one in Oregon Of these sixty-four members the Democrats have elected sixteen or seventeen, not more, and this is the great political revolution which was promised! The Democrats were going to make a clean sweep, but are swept clean

In computing "Democratic gains" the Herald compares the results just achieved by the Republicans with the greatest of their former triumphs. Why don't it compare these elections with those of last year? But as that paper seems to be finding fault because the Republican majorities are not large enough, we promise it that it shall see the Lincoln majorities for Grant in November

The celebrated traveller, Gulliver, found, in that wonderful academy which he discovered at Lagado, a philosopher who had been experimenting for many years with a view of extracting sunbeams from cucumbers But this effort is nothing at all to the attempt of the Herald to derive comfort from the figures of the late election Sunbeams from cucumbers is an easy task in comparison with the task which the editor of that paper has taken on his hands

Wouldn't it be quite as well for him to reflect a little and see whether it is profitable for his party to continue their efforts to elevate the rebels and their lost cause to a state of respectability and honor? Does it pay to attempt to convince the people that the rebellion was not a crime and that its authors are the fittest men to govern the country Perhaps the Democratic party will see this cover that the rebel cause which they are trying to make honorable is destined to go down in history with the curse of its infamy upon it

FACTS.—James Buchanan's administration trebled the national debt in a time of profound peace The Republicans have settled the accounts of a bloody war, with a Democratic President opposed to them and reduced the national debt $800 000 000 in three years "By their works ye shall know them"

Groans from the "World"

A most significant item of political moment is a double leaded editorial in the World of yesterday telegraphed West "The youthful, indomitable Democracy" It recites the late elections where the Democracy was only beaten in three States by a few thousand votes and says inquiringly— why having come so near success in these elections we have just missed it Two reasons appear in the absence of either of which our success would have been certain If the military fame of General Grant had been out of the scale, we should have succeeded or that remaining, if the perversions of Gen Blair's position had been out of the scale, we should have succeeded It would be paying a poor compliment to General Grant to say that his popularity has not been worth the Republicans half the meagre majority by which they carried Pennsylvania But half that small majority on the other side and the parties would be equal If that small number of votes is due to the popularity of Gen Grant (and it would be ridiculous to suppose the contrary) the election, had it been decided on the issue would have been decided in favor of the Democrats All some remarks will apply to other States Our Democratic principles pure and simple we should have succeeded The narrow escape of the Republicans is due not to their principles but to military prestige and the aspersions cast on Blair In the right of principle, we should have succeeded—and we may succeed yet

Mr Colfax and Know Nothingism

The Herald the other day, had an article charging that Mr Colfax was once a member of the Know Nothing order The Boston Pilot, the most able and influential organ of the Irish Catholics of New England, brands the charge as a falsehood, and does ample justice to Mr Colfax in the following article which we copy from it

"A correspondent of ours at South Bend, Indiana, Thomas McGrath, who is not a politician says that the charge advanced against Schuyler Colfax of having been sworn into a Know Nothing organization in 1854, is not true He further incloses to us an extract from a speech of Mr Colfax at South Bend, July 30, 1868 relative to this very charge, to which the Speaker responds thus 'You know it is a falsehood, you know that never in my public life, from the commencement to the close, in any year, month or day, have I held any other doctrine than that principles and character, not birth place and creed were the true tests for official promotion Men who may resort to forgery may sign my name with their felonious fingers, for a forgery is a felony You hear know that there has not been an election for the past twelve years that I have not gone to the polls not with a closed ballot, but an open one, and voted for men of foreign birth, and who worshipped at a different altar from what I did myself Here is the only place where I will answer that calumny, let it be buried in the tomb, where are buried calumnies and forgeries like it in the graves of the past'"

The Signal says "the assessed value of property in Polk county—personal and real—as returned last week by H Davis Esq, County Assessor is $1 2[illegible] Number of [illegible] This assessment falls short some $200,000 of the assessment of last year The county court has fixed the levy for the current year at 17½ mills on the dollar." Polk county seems to be progressing backwards under Democratic rule.

LETTERS FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, Thursday Oct 15, 1868

AN THER RAILROAD MEMORIAL

In the House this morning Bellinger's memorial asking Congress for aid to construct a railroad from Corvallis to Yaquina, was adopted

INTRODUCTION OF NEW BILLS

The resolution cutting off the introduction of bills after Saturday, has the effect to produce a rush of bills It would seem that many of the members did little else but hunt up things about which to compose bills The House bills now number about eighty, and Senate bills something over sixty Not more than a couple of dozen of these can pass without a suspension of the rules in each house It will be fortunate for the State if most of them fail Thus far I have seen no attempt among those members who know the law and who appreciate the harmony of statutes, to make any well defined and consistent change There are very few lawyers in either branch, and many of those members who are not lawyers seem to act only upon impulses or isolated ideas in amending the code They introduce amendments without the least idea of the effect upon the consistency and harmony of the code Each man has an idea of his own in relation to some particular section of the statute, and in seeking to amend the code in accordance with such idea, overlooks the fact that his amendment may introduce confusion and muddle the practice The Judiciary Committee have done some good service in exposing and reporting against some of these mischievous bills The want of time to pass them will dispose of a good many others, and thus, therefore, there will be a portion of the code left, untouched

GEOLOGICAL

Mr Gray introduced a resolution which was adopted instructing the Committee on Mining to call on Dr Veatch, who is said to be an eminent geologist and to confer with him in relation to the propriety of making a geological survey of the State Afterward Mr Gray offered a resolution which was adopted, tendering the use of the Hall to Dr Veatch for the purpose of lecturing Monday evening on the geological and mineral resources of the State

INSANE ASYLUM BUILDING BILL DISPOSED OF.

The House bill to provide for the erection of an Insane Asylum was referred to a Special Committee - Gilfrey Winston and Ryan The bill will probably not progress much further during this session and it is doubtful if it be heard of again

The bill to enlarge the corporate limits of the city of Salem was passed

A GERRYMANDERING BILL

The bill to define the boundaries of Baker county came up on its second reading Mr Gray, of Grant moved to refer it to a Special Committee, and stated as a reason for its reference that as the boundaries are now defined in the bill, they will take out of Grant county a number of Democratic voters and thus leave it Republican This was an argument which the Democratic member could appreciate, and the bill was referred

RAILROAD MEMORIALS AGAIN

In the Senate, Mr Miller, of Jackson, from the Committee on Railroads, to whom had been referred House joint memorial No 2, (Gazley's), reported the same back with a recommendation that it be adopted Mr Herman moved that the Senate concur Mr Trevitt moved to recommit to a special committee He said he was not hostile to the memorial but he wanted to hold it in chancery till it should be known what the House would do with the other memorial—Chapman's Herman urged that it would be unfair and bad policy to make this, one of the most important measures of the session, contingent upon the success of another proposition The memorial was however recommitted—to Trevitt, Herman and Cornelius

THE BILL TO REMOVE MAJOR BERRY.

The Senate had a lengthy and exciting fight over the bill to make the office of Superintendent of the Penitentiary elective by the Legislature The bill is really a bill to remove Major Berry, who is a prominent and hated Republican Mr Herman desired to have the bill referred—a course generally pursued with bills upon second reading Hendershott moved to refer to Judiciary Committee with instructions to report at two o'clock Mr Herman thought this an insult to the committee to require it to examine so grave a matter as an entire revolution in the management of the Penitentiary and to report within two hours and a half During the discussion, Mr. Hendershott made an offensive allusion to the "brains" of the gentleman from Douglas, to which Mr Herman retorted that as a general rule the person with the least "brains" were slowest to discover brains in others This little "tilt" was about a stand off, and both gentlemen soon recovered their good nature Mr Hendershott's motion was lost, but after a long parliamentary skirmish, the bill was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations with instructions to report at half past two

BILLS PASSED.

The Senate concurred in the House Joint Memorial No 5, for the improvement of the Walla mat river. The following bills were passed: The bill to repeal section 730 of the criminal code, the bill to regulate fees of County Judges, the bill to prevent and punish gambling, the bill to provide for closing front doors of saloons and to prevent loud noises in places of amusement near to churches, &c, on Sunday, the bill to repeal the act granting aid to the Oregon Central Railroad, the bill to amend the law regulating fees of certain officers and the bill to prevent the killing of game during certain seasons

INSANE ASYLUM

The batch of papers and matters relating to the Insane Asylum was made the special order for to morrow, at two o clock

IN THE HOUSE—EVENING SESSION

The House held an evening session, the resolution withdrawing the assent of Oregon to the 14th Amendment being the special order Mr Gazley led off in the discussion The chief point of interest in his speech was a stirring allusion to the late election news and a scathing denunciation of the Democratic party for its treason during the rebellion He spoke until called to "time," by an uneasy Democrat Mr Cox followed with an animated speech on the Constitution, Radical frauds and niggers Mr Smith, of Jackson, gave the House a South side view of the nigger question Mr Davenport offered the following amendment Insert before the first "whereas" following the recitation of the 14th Amendment, as follows

AND WHEREAS, No State by any act of its own such as withdrawing its Representatives from the Congress of the United States and disavowing allegiance to the Constitution of the same organizing new governments and entering into treaties and forming alliances with other nations emitting bills of credit, coining money granting letters of marque and reprisal raising and supporting armies and navies and waging war against the Government of the United States cannot forfeit any of its rights, privileges and immunities as one of the United States and especially to the right of representation in Congress and of passing upon proposed amendments to the Constitution of the United States

Mr Gray moved the previous question on the original resolution! but the Speaker decided the amendment before the House Mr Stiles moved the previous question on the amendment To order the previous question, the vote stood 18 to 20, so it failed The Speaker here ruled that the refusal to sustain the previous question disposed of the amendment Mr Chapman was very anxious to get at the amendment He was roused, and exhibited less of his well balanced temper than usual Mr Davenport seeing that his amendment was knocked summarily out of the ring, by "main strength and awkwardness," offered another amendment Mr Gray instantly moved the previous question on the joint resolution The House sustained the motion and the vote was taken ayes, 26 nays, 18—a strict party vote Alexander, of Linn, and Rinehart were absent

The House adjourned

THE SPEAKING LAST EVENING

Messrs Bowlby and Burnet spoke at the Wigwam last evening to a pretty fair audience The enthusiasm, as you may readily suppose, was mostly on the side of the Republicans The news from the East was a deadener on the Cops and they didn't succeed well with the "rebel yell" The Union men feel that they have very nearly an even chance to carry the State Democrats are not going to come out heavily for a candidate whom they know to be already defeated

There was some money won by the result in Pennsylvania Ohio and Indiana—betting even

The New York Commercial Advertiser gives the following quotations of the political stock market "The betting on Grant in the political market yesterday was $1 000 to $250 and but few takers Not many are willing to take stock that Seymour will carry the State The betting on Hoffman is wild and Hoffman is even, and the Democrats are not over anxious to venture in taking this stock"

Just before the final struggle at Richmond Phil Sheridan telegraphed Grant, "I think Lee will surrender if things are pushed" Grant replied in two words "Push things" Things were pushed The Republican supporters of Grant are "pushing things," with an assurance of similar success.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

Oregon Legislature.

SALEM, Oct 16 —In the Senate, Ford reported against the bill to regulate insurance business, and the bill was laid on the table

The bill to create the office of Attorney General was disposed of the same way

The bill relating to private corporations, making all books open to inspection, was passed.

Bayley introduced a bill to regulate the practice of medicine surgery dentistry, etc Also, a bill for the promotion of anatomical science. The latter was indefinitely postponed

Thomson—a bill to regulate the fees of County Clerks, Sheriffs etc Trevitt a bill relating to the election of Sheriffs Clerks, Coroners, etc

The bill to amend the law creating offices and to provide regulations for the Penitentiary, came up on third reading A sharp debate occurred Ford, in particular pitched into Dutchtown the Methodist Institute and the Penitentiary, as three Black Republican institutions of this county which he should like to see abolished He thought they were political engines in the hands of Black Republicans to defeat the Democracy Mr Hendershott said that he thought that the bill was a political measure He should vote against it on the grounds that it would be against the public good to make a change in the superintendency of the Penitentiary He said that no man could be found in the State superior to the present superintendent The bill passed, however, 12 to 10

The Insane Asylum question occupied a considerable part of the afternoon A resolution was adopted instructing the Governor to contract with J C Hawthorne for keeping the insane at not more than $6 50 per week, and instructing the committee on Insane Asylum to report a bill providing for the erection of permanent buildings within two years

In the House, the Speaker ruled that the motion to take up Davenport's amendment to the Senate Joint Resolution No 4 could not be entertained, because the resolution to which the amendment was offered had been finally disposed of An appeal from this decision was not sustained

Hoxter presented a petition and remonstrance from Columbia county, relating to setting off the precinct of Oak Point in Clatsop county Referred

The remainder of the day was spent mostly in reading bills the second time

NO WHITES DISFRANCHISED —The truth is gradually coming out about the alleged disfranchisement of the whites in reconstructed States—a matter which has occasioned great distress to sympathizing Democrats in this part of the country The Mobile Register, speaking for Alabama, says of every white citizen "As the law now stands, he need do no more than go to the office of the probate judge sign his name, and receive a certificate to that effect Under the disability act of the so-called Legislature, that is all that is required to make him a voter" That is to say, all the white voter of Alabama has to do is to get properly registered in order to vote Not a man in the State is disfranchised. The Democrats there have nothing to complain of except the old rebel grievance that other people have rights as well as themselves How many Northern people are going to make themselves miserable over that?

Last June when the Democrats carried Oregon they were mad with ecstasy, and supposed that they would sweep the whole country They thought that because a few thousand rebel thugs and paroled guerrillas had come out to Oregon and carried it for the "Democracy," the whole country was going the same way The discovery of their error has fallen upon them like a thunder bolt Their disappointment results from their folly in putting their faith in Price's rebels

Words of Condolence

The following dispatch has been received by William McDavidson, Esq, of this city

WASHINGTON D C Oct 16, 1868

To WM McDAVIDSON The election news is very hard on renegades The President feels it Your dispatch excites my pity Fortunately I came out for Grant before the elections You should have done the same A man of your facility for changing his politics should never be found at a time like this on the losing side Very Sat

WEEKLY STATEMENT —During the past week, [illegible] the river steamers, [illegible] is no immediate prospect [illegible] the smoke is driven away, [illegible] transportation in the [illegible] was first settled by the whites, [illegible] instances similar to the [illegible] The great fires frequently [illegible] which have prevailed so extensively over almost the [illegible] have filled the atmosphere with [illegible] the heaviest fogs ever known have [illegible] In addition [illegible] along the Pacific coast and extended [illegible] The long continued dry weather has [illegible] a low stage of water that navigation has [illegible] most difficult and tedious [illegible] a matter for congratulation [illegible] With the removal of [illegible] obstructions, which will doubtless soon take place [illegible] much more active spirit will pervade [illegible] than Portland has witnessed for [illegible] time.

The following Oregon produce [illegible] for the week [illegible] of the Willamette river [illegible] ing yesterday [illegible] 021 sks of flour, 1,271 bags wheat [illegible] 050 sks oats, 437 sks middlings, 111 [illegible] kegs butter [illegible] eggs [illegible] apples, [illegible] 16 bales woolens, 51 pkgs furniture, [illegible] pig iron 4 000 feet ash lumber, 52 pkgs [illegible] chandise

BAD BOYS.—One of the dailies in this city [illegible] that assaults seemed to be "the go," and gave a list [illegible] cases before the Recorder for that [illegible] We witnessed one of the liveliest affairs of this kind [illegible] come under our observation for some time. [illegible] between two boys, neither of them over ten years of [illegible] apparently but they seemed to be pretty [illegible] drilled in those vicious [illegible] picked up by the young [illegible] large cities. The quarrel seemed to have [illegible] dispute as to the ownership [illegible] the most abusive were used [illegible] would enhance the notoriety of "the [illegible] New York [illegible] came on directly and [illegible] might have resulted had it not been for the interference of a bystander [illegible] do them a great wrong to allow [illegible] such habits Just as the twig is bent the [illegible] clined."

REMOVAL.—From the [illegible] of this [illegible] learn that the publisher intends [illegible] his press [illegible] material to La Grande, in Union county, [illegible] issue. We learn that an effort [illegible] by which the Enterprise and Blue M[illegible] in Times [illegible] be merged into one paper We regret to lose the editor [illegible] from the Webfoot country, but [illegible] know

"There is no union here of [illegible]
That finds not here an end."

We predict that the left wing of the [illegible] land of sage brush and [illegible], will find the new paper a thorn in their sides To the good [illegible] hearty support of men of that [illegible] who love the Union and favor the great principles [illegible] which the Enterprise has always [illegible], we [illegible] it, and wish the editor great [illegible] daily We bid you good bye.

[illegible]—Mr H. M H[illegible], living [illegible] miles west of town took the first [illegible] the late State Fair. Mr H. [illegible] how to take care [illegible] cows. Since the first of January last he has [illegible] the product of eight good common [illegible] 1,800 lbs butter sold at an average of 44½c per lb. [illegible]

Butter-milk	[illegible]
Pork from sour milk	[illegible]

Butter for home consumption	[illegible]
Total	[illegible]

Expenses entire including interest on worth of [illegible] was $240 40, leaving a net profit of $[illegible] the Advocate

[illegible] —The following [illegible] The Oregon Presbytery of the [illegible] Presbyterian Church commissioned the [illegible] at the [illegible] Church Salem, on Thursday last. [illegible] the pastors of the various [illegible] had a very interesting meeting for [illegible] at Rev Mr Anderson's [illegible] to hold these [illegible] convention of [illegible] meet at Dallas on the 27th [illegible] at the colored [illegible] of 4th and Columbia [illegible] in this city. Rev. [illegible] the pastor, came to Portland in April last and [illegible] the Church on the 29th of that [illegible]

ARRIVED—The steamer [illegible] arrived [illegible] with a number of [illegible] from [illegible] The Coast had been dispatched in the [illegible] the cause of the delay, and [illegible] which might be necessary, but the [illegible] did not [illegible] help which could be [illegible] in the weather. She was [illegible] at the [illegible] and by such a fog [illegible] could be seen at a greater distance than a few yards [illegible] with the fog and [illegible] that boats can go at all.

PUBLIC SALE.—Fine [illegible] site, good dwelling [illegible] all these are [illegible] half of lot 3 in block 177, which A. B. [illegible] will sell to-day in front of the [illegible] door, at two o'clock in the afternoon. This [illegible] street, between W[illegible] and [illegible], and is one of the best locations for a private [illegible] in the city.

AT WORK —From the Enterprise we learn that [illegible] men are at work on Bluff St, [illegible] City, for the East Side Railroad C[illegible] Chinamen at work for the [illegible] are making good time with their [illegible] the Commercial, that a large steam [illegible] have been taken [illegible] the river to be set up in a new [illegible] for the same [illegible]

OVERLADEN —Some fellow shouldered a roll of matting lying on the sidewalk in [illegible] yesterday morning and started off, but the police got on his track, and following him [illegible] came within hailing [illegible] the matting, fearing he might not be able to [illegible] with his burden as would [illegible] out of sight

NEW BOOKS —Portland Library has just received the following new and interesting [illegible] at their rooms on first street, opposite Oro Fino Hall: The [illegible] Gipsy by Elliot; Folly as it [illegible] The Hermits by Kingsley; [illegible] Life in the Argentine Republic; The [illegible] Records of Five years

DRAMATIC —The Drunkard, or the Fallen [illegible] was repeated to a good house last night, at Oro Fino Theatre. The troupe excel in this [illegible] and every one who sees it feels well repaid for the time. [illegible] better lesson on the subject of temperance can be [illegible] that it forcibly impresses upon all [illegible] All should witness it To night the domestic drama of Ernest Maltravers.

LET EVERYBODY remember the F[illegible] this evening at the Good Templar's Hall, cor Front and Alder streets, for the benefit of Multnomah Lodge To all who attend a pleasant time is [illegible] has been spared by the Committee of Arrangements [illegible] make it a successful and pleasant affair.

AGAIN POSTPONED —The thorough cleaning, [illegible] and painting of the Active required more time than was at first allowed She is consequently not quite [illegible] sail this morning but will leave to-morrow at 8 A. M The work done on her since her arrival in this port, gives her a neat and comfortable appearance.

[illegible] —During the past week the re[ceipts of] produce by the river steamers has been [very] light, and there is no immediate prospect of [improvement]. Until the smoke is driven away, the f[og] and the waters rise transportati[on] in the val[ley will] [probab]ly be confined to land carriage. At no [time since] Oregon was first settled by the whites has a [state of] [illegible] tances similar to the present. The great fires frequently noticed before [have] [illegible] so extensively over almost the en[tire] [country and] filled the atmosphere with dense smoke [illegible] [the heaviest] fogs ever known have hung all [along the] coast and extended hundreds of miles [illegible] continued dry weather has caused such [illegible] that navigation has indeed become [illegible] tedious. Men in the city complain of [illegible] some reason but viewing all these [illegible] the usual channel of commerce it is perhaps [illegible] [illegible] men that the [illegible] is not less. With the removal of these [illegible] will doubtless soon take place a [illegible] spirit will pervade commercial circles [illegible] for some time.

[illegible] produce composed the freight [illegible] river steamers for the week end[ing] [illegible] sks of flour 1 271 bags wheat, [illegible] middlings, 111 gunnies bacon, 11 [illegible] eggs, 67 bxs apples 55 bxs grapes [illegible] pkgs furniture, 86 b[illegible] 76 tons [illegible] lumber 52 pkgs unspecified mer[chandise].

[illegible] of the dailies in this city recently said [illegible] to be "the go[illegible] and gave a list of [illegible] for that offence. Mr Zachariah Wilson Portland Oregon writes;

It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself during the stormy ordeal of public exper[im]ents. Murray's Improved Magic Oil has stood the test of time and has not been found wanting. The aston[ish]ing efficacy that I experienced—its curing me of Chronic Rheumatism and Lumbago of long standing entitles Dr Murray's Premium Lung and Liver Ba[lsam] and Improved Magic Oil to a high rank in the list of remedies for R[heumat]ism, Lumbago, Ear-ache, D[illegible]ing Pains etc.

John English of Howell Prairie, Marion county, Oregon writes:

I was taken with a severe attack of Rheumatism in my knee joints and extremities accompanied with a severe cough for two months so that I had to use crutches, meanwhile trying all remedies in common use. Your Magic Oil and Balsam gave me instant relief, and I was able to walk in four days without crutches. I have not felt any rheumatism since. I have seen y[o]ur family med[icine] since used with excellent success. I have no hesitancy in saying it is the best preparation for family use ever tried for those complaints. I am now on my way to South America after residing in Oregon twenty years. I must now have two dozens Balsam and two dozens of your Magic Oil dollar bottles as I am sure they are the best remedies in Oregon and I w[o]uld not be without them in my ho[use], and when this package of medicine is exhausted I will send to your office in Portland for a fresh supply. Use none but the Best.—Thousands of worthless preparations are scattered broadcast over the land purporting to be SPECIFICS for C[onsu]mption. Some may p[ossess] a little merit but when it is known by all the p[ossi]bility of successful contradiction that NEW[E]LL'S PULMONARY SYRUP has accomplished all that is claimed for it, as a remedy for ALL affections of the CHEST and LUNGS. It seems little short of criminal neglect for persons requiring such a remedy to waste the golden moment in experimenti[n]g with any other. It is equally applicable in all cases young or old.

For the Bath. Redington & Co's. Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The und[ersign]ed who has always enjoyed [the] confidence for the excellent quality of his C[offee] [has] nothing to justify the good [name] acquired by his productions the sale of which daily i[ncreases]. The acknowledged superiority of his m[anufactures] which [illegible] here, and in the markets of the [illegible] [illegible]tively higher price excites the cupidity of some men [illegible] and every day he sees incr[eas]ing the [number] of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his [illegible] seek to [illegible] the public, palming upon them their [illegible] prod[uct] as for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, Oct 16, 1868.

Tel[illegible] from New York dated the 14th, quote gold at 137@137¾. The tendency during the week has been constantly but gradually downward.

Legal t[illegible] notes at San Francisco, at same date, 72¾ @73. A scarcity of coin prevails and exchange on San Francisco is reduced to one-half one per cent.

Latest advices from New York quote flour quiet and steady at $9@12 50. Wheat, $2 45 for new, $2 70 for old. [illegible] quotations 12s 7d—a slight decline.

San Francisco Produce market—No large sales reported. The dispatches quote flour, extra in sacks, at $5@6 25; superfine, $5@5 25. The range of the wheat market is from $1 60 to 1 90, owing to quality. Barley—nominal at $2 10@2 12½. Oats, $1 95@2 20.

Our [illegible] market is duller on account of the continued [illegible] attending transportation by water. Flour [illegible] changed from last report. The quantity on hand is not large, as the mills cannot obtain the amount of grain to keep them steadily employed. A decline [illegible] in the price of wheat, the range now being from 65 to 70 per bushel. The unusual length of the dry [illegible] is becoming a serious inconvenience to the country. Great difficulty is experienced in navigating the [illegible] of the entire State owing to the unprecedented low stage of water in the Willamette and Yamhill rivers, and the dense fogs and smoke prevailing everywhere. Doubtless a change in the weather would greatly [illegible] the activity in the produce market of Portland. [illegible] quantities of grain are in store along the Upper Willamette awaiting the rise in the river, and when transportation can be had, every indication is that the receipts will rapidly increase.

Further, our market presents but few changes. Of Island [illegible], there is none in the market. The Alaska, with [illegible] bbls., has been detained some two weeks at [illegible], and at last accounts was [illegible] put into Port Townsend for supplies. All brands [illegible] are [illegible] somewhat higher. Brooms, owing to a scarcity of broom corn in California, have advanced from $1 50 to 50 cents on the dozen. Other slight [illegible] are noted below.

Business [illegible] during the week, has been as lively as [illegible] be expected. The attention of the people at large is somewhat distracted upon other questions, that of the great political campaign, somewhat overshadowing all others. One month more and that question will be [illegible] and then [illegible] of commerce will assume their [illegible] and [illegible] of all kinds, experience a [illegible]

[illegible] Family Market.

PORTLAND, Oct. 16, 1868.

[illegible] markets have been well supplied during the week. [illegible] fruits, such as apples, pears and [illegible] plentiful, of good quality and [illegible] quite [illegible] lower than last week, by [illegible] in a few. A good supply of California fruits and vegetables were received [illegible]. Some of the [illegible] at [illegible] but generally they were of good [illegible] Family grocers are doing a fair [illegible]; better [illegible] they were earlier in the season.

Minerva Lodge No. 19, I. O. O. F. (German)—Meets every Monday evening at 7½ o'clock in Stark's building third story, opposite Arrigoni's Hotel. Members of the Order are invited to attend. By order of N. G. Portland, March 11th, 1868.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of [illegible] or excitement as

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and [illegible] it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, [illegible] debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It [illegible] and lights [illegible] the depressed mental powers as well as [illegible] the body, and its use is never followed by any [illegible]. Sold by all Druggists [illegible]. TO THE ENTERPRISING

Farmers of Oregon!

CASTONE'S X-L-SIOR

BROAD-CAST GRAIN-SOWER.

THIS VALUABLE LABOR-SAVING MACHINE, which has already been adopted in nearly every agricultural county in the State of California and in every county where it has been [illegible], has been brought to Portland by who holds the exclusive right to the same for the State of Oregon, and is now ready to accommodate the farmers of this State with machines, and to sell county rights to manufacture the same.

This machine saves the entire cost and labor of sowing a field excepting the cost of a machine—the same team being used for sowing and harrowing as is used for harrowing alone, the farmer or his boy riding and driving his team, instead of walking and carrying his heavy sack, and then walking and dragging his grain in.

The inventor of this valuable aid to farmers is a man of large experience in seeding machines, and has happily succeeded in this invention, in producing a machine which, while it carries the farmer as if on a sulky, sows [illegible] barley, oats and peas with greater regularity than the [illegible] be sown by hand, and at the same time the harrow attached to it, immediately behind, covers the grain and the labor is done. Any intelligent farmer who has ever carried a sack and sowed grain will readily see that the X-L-SIOR Grain Sower will save its entire cost in labor alone to say nothing of its saving in seed—in sowing comparatively but few acres; and we have placed an improper estimate upon the enterprise of our Oregon farmers if this machine is not generally adopted in this State, as it has already been in California, and where the farmers write to the inventors respecting it after this manner:

LINCOLN, (Placer Co.,) Sept. 5, '68.

MR. H. A. GIBBON—Dear Sir: I have two complete machines (X-L-SIOR) which I challenge the State to beat for sowing [illegible] I have not as many fingers in the shaft as you directed, but I do not want my machines to sow any better than they do. I have [illegible] and gauged them perfectly.

T. C. PURINGTON.

By addressing or calling upon Mr. Brusie at C. Hopkins, corner of Front and Morrison streets, in this city, machines or County Rights to manufacture and sell the machines can be purchased at reasonable rates.

For[illegible]ing Lands and Town Lots.

THE OREGON CENTRAL

RAILROAD COMPANY

OFFERS FOR SALE A GREAT VARIETY OF LANDS in MULTNOMAH, WASHINGTON and YAMHILL Counties, and along the line of their Railroad now being constructed.

VALUABLE Timber Lands in lots to suit purchasers.

LOTS in the City of Portland, Hillsboro', Forest Grove, McMinnville, and at points selected for Stations on said Railroad.

PERSONS OF LIMITED MEANS desiring to open Farms or secure Homesteads along the line of this Railroad, and persons desirous of making investments in real estate certain to increase in value, are invited to examine the lands here offered for sale.

Opportunities will be afforded to those who desire it, to pay for lands, or a portion of the value thereof, in labor upon the Company's road, and thus place it within the reach of every laborer to secure a home. Several contracts of this character have already been made, and persons without lands or a home are urged to examine this opportunity.

A liberal credit extended to all purchasers, if desired.

Titles indisputable, with warranty deeds, in all cases.

Apply at the Company's office, No. 5, Carter's Block in Portland, or by letter to

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily [illegible] as a bucket of water.

It [illegible] within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtha, and combustible materials now in common use.

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE,	NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE,	G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY,	JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,

And others in that vicinity

IN THE TRIUMPH OF

REPUBLICAN PRINCIPLES

THE "IRISH REPUBLIC" NEWSPAPER, PUBlished in New York City, is devoted to the promulgation of the principles of the Republican party. It is now engaged in a bitter and most arduous struggle with all the reactionary elements which have so long controlled the votes of adopted citizens of Irish birth. Its circulation and influence are being widely extended, but as in all such enterprises, the results are all consumed in the efforts at maintaining and extending that influence. The paper is a large and handsome Weekly, published at a subscription price of five dollars per annum. We propose to devote our columns to the great work of the pending campaign. We will send the Irish Republic for four months, for ONE DOLLAR, in packages of ten and upwards. TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of affecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn-to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and become too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he promises to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian. ly5d4ptf
